The restaurant, itself, was founded in the late 1930s.

The rooms are rustic and cozy. On pleasant, warm days guests can sit on one of the two terraces or in the beautiful beer garden under large old chestnut trees. Children can play on the playground or just run around on the spacious grounds.

There is a baby’s changing unit available to mothers and coloring/drawing books for children to enjoy whilst waiting for their ordered meal, which they can order from a special children’s menu.

The menu has a good selection of dishes, mainly good plain food, as well as game dishes and homemade cake.
